

2021 Humanitarian Studies Conference

2021 Conference on Humanitarian Studies

New realities of politics and humanitarianism: between solidarity and abandonment

The 6th International Humanitarian Studies Conference will be organized in Paris, from 3-5 November 2021, by the International Humanitarian Studies Association in collaboration with Sciences Po, with a significant scientific implication of the Center for International Studies (CERI) at Sciences Po.

This conference will be a hybrid event, meaning we will host live panels in Paris and include online participation as well.

Connect with us via

- IHSA website: <https://ihsa.info>
- IHSA Conference website: <https://conference.ihsa.info>
- Social Media: Twitter - Facebook - Facebook event - LinkedIn - LinkedIn event

The Call for Panels is now open and we invite panels that address our the 5 sub-themes:

- 1) Health and the Environment
- 2) Localizing Humanitarian Studies
- 3) Political Economy and Politics of Humanitarianism
- 4) Technology and Innovation
- 5) Migration, Displacement and Refugees

The panels are reviewed by a Scientific Committee consisting of IHSA board members, experts from our partner Sciences Po and invited external experts on the specific conference themes. Find out who is on the reviewing team per theme on this list.

Important Dates

Call for panels opens	1 April 2021
Call for panels closes	15 June 2021
Review deadline panels	30 June 2021
Call for papers opens	16 June 2021
Call for papers closes	1 Sept 2021
Review deadline papers	15 Sept 2021
Conference dates	3-5 Nov 2021